

As a lover of Christ and people, Pastor Al Jackson, Jr. serves as the Senior Pastor of the New Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church of Miami, Florida. A native of Coconut Grove, Miami, Pastor Jackson accepted the call of God to proclaim the gospel as a 4th generation preacher.

Pastor Jackson matriculated through the Miami-Dade County public school system and continued his education at the great Bethune-Cookman University in Religion & Philosophy. He furthered his training through Palm Beach Atlantic University, DeVos Urban Leadership Initiative, and others.

For over 15 years, Pastor Jackson has served in the capacities of Youth Pastor and Assistant Pastor for the Greater Friendship Missionary Baptist Church in Daytona Beach and the Second Baptist Church of Miami, under the leadership of his father, Dr. Alphonso Jackson, Sr. In 2014, Pastor Al Jackson, Jr. was called to lead as Senior Pastor of the Greater New Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church in Miami for almost 8 years. While there, the church experienced significant growth through a strong commitment to spreading the L.O.V.E. of Jesus Christ through leadership, outreach, values, and excellence throughout the community.

Following the leading of God in January 2022, Pastor Jackson accepted an opportunity to succeed Dr. D.L. Powell as the Senior Pastor of New Shiloh Church, where his grandfather, the late Dr. Arthur Jackson, Jr., had pastored for over 30 years. Since beginning his pastorate in January 2024, Rev. Jackson's uncompromising and creative teaching of God's Word has made an impact in the lives of many people in the South Florida area.

Noted as a community leader, Pastor Al Jackson, Jr., serves as the President of the Young Pastors and Ministers Auxiliary of the Florida General Baptist Convention, Chair of the Collective Empowerment Group of South Florida, and sits on the board for several organizations, such as the North Shore Medical Center and One Church One Child of Florida.

Pastor Jackson's greatest honor is being favorably married to the beautiful Dr. Jamila F. R. Jackson, Dean of Campus Ministry at Florida Memorial University. Together, they are blessed to have two beautiful daughters, Angelina and Allyson, and a handsome son, Alphonso III. As a family, their mission is to cultivate a culture of people who authentically love their Creator and His creations through Jesus Christ.
